

Veterinary Assistant Program

Successful students in the Veterinary Assistant programs are:

- Driven
- Compassionate—for people and animals
- Willing to go above and beyond
- Supportive of classmates
- Team-oriented
- Reliable
- Attentive to detail
- Good communicators
- Independent
- Sociable

The Veterinary Assistant program is offered at the following location:

Harrison College Northwest
6300 Technology Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46278

The veterinary field provides a unique opportunity to put your passion and expertise to use, caring for animals while also improving your own life.

We know our students—their lives and families, obstacles and motivations, and their dreams and goals. We also know their potential—that's why we're committed to providing a supportive environment that empowers you to pursue your dreams of caring for animals. Your stories, challenges and triumphs inspire our faculty and staff every day.

Harrison College's 300 contact hour non-credit Veterinary Assistant program provides you the opportunity to learn:

- Small animal husbandry
- Laws and ethics of veterinary medicine
- Hands-on practical and clinical skills for small animal procedures
- Soft skills, professionalism and communication
